From now on, the flights carried out between the European territory of the French Republic and the other Countries applying the implementing convention of Schengen agreement dated June 14th, 2002(*) are not subject to particular customs and police formalities. These flights can be operating from or to any French aerodromes, helicopter airstrips and airfields approved for ULM aircraft operation, providing that the use for which these aerodromes, helicopter airstrips and airfields are intended for, is complied with.

However, these flights are still to be considered as international flights and thus are required to file a flight plan.
